WE WELCOME SEMINARIAN D. J. EGAN

My name is David John Egan Jr. Most people call me D.J. I am 27 years old. I recently completed my fourth year of seminary, but still have three more years to go before I am ordained a priest for the Diocese of Pittsburgh. The seminary I attend is called Theological College which is located in Washington D.C., and I take all of my classes at the Catholic University of America.

I grew up just north of Pittsburgh near North Park in Hampton Township. I belong to St. Mary of the Assumption Parish in Glenshaw and attended the church's school from second to eighth grade. I went to high school at Shady Side Academy and graduated from Allegheny College. My parents were born and grew up in Pittsburgh. I have one younger brother and two older sisters; we are all approximately a year and a half apart in age.

I am a huge fan of sports. I enjoy cycling, running, and I love to play pickup basketball. I played soccer, basketball, and ran track in high school. I was fortunate enough to continue to play soccer in college and played one season with an Amateur/Semi-Pro team for one season before entering seminary. Aside from sports, I love food and I've heard that I will be eating very well over the next year given the variety of ethnic foods the area is known for. Among other jobs, I worked as a cook at a small nursing home in the North Hills for a year before entering the seminary in 2012.

I am extremely excited to be living in Ambridge and working with Fr. Joe Carr and the parishioners at Good Samaritan and St. John the Baptist parishes for the next year. I look forward to meeting and getting to know all of you throughout my time here in Ambridge and Baden.

From Father Joe

Even though he has only been around for a week or so, I can't tell you how thrilled I am to have D.J. here. I know the parish will come to love him. He is not afraid to roll up his sleeves and help in virtually any way. In fact, he has already learned to pinch pierogi!

Please take the time to introduce yourself to D. J. when you see him. He has been assigned to our parishes as part of a new initiative to let seminary students work an entire year in the parish to supplement their classroom training. I cannot think of a better place for him to come and fall in love with the priesthood than here at Good Samaritan and Saint John the Baptist. Ω
