We Always Knew the Day Would Come...

We always knew the day would come when we would have to bid goodbye to Sister Marise, Good Samaritan's beloved Parish Social Minister. Since July of 2003, she has faithfully served the needs of countless people in our area. Soon she will begin a part-time ministry at La Roche College, working with a new generation of young people residing in the college dorms. With the new position, she will be moving to the North Hills.

The list of things Sister did at the parish is daunting. She developed and maintained lists of shut-ins to be visited on a regular basis, taking Communion to them and letting them know they are not forgotten. She has worked in Bereavement Ministry, meeting with families after the loss of a loved one to help plan funeral liturgies and to begin the healing process. Under the direction of Fr. Sam, she helped establish the parish archives, preserving memories of the five parishes that merged more than 20 years ago to form Good Samaritan.

Adding her own touch to the role of Parish Social Minister, Sister sent countless cards for birthdays, special occasions, and even anniversaries of the loss of a loved one. She worked with the Ladies of Charity and Christian Mothers to bring help to those in need. For over a decade, she was the face of the Catholic Church to the lost and hungry who stopped at our door, lovingly putting together bags of food and documenting their needs to be presented to the parish Saint Vincent DePaul Society. Sister organized Masses for the Anointing of the sick, as well as visits to those in nursing homes and rehab centers scattered around Beaver County.

The list of Sister's many accomplishments really doesn't capture the way she touched our lives. She has always been quick with a smile and a word of encouragement, and sometimes consolation after a very long, very bad day. Deacon Anthony, had the chance to follow her around for a morning recently. When asked about the experience, he commented that it was hard to keep up with her!

Since her start at the parish in 2003, Sister Marise has touched the hearts of many of us. As the name of her religious order suggests, Sister has always been an ardent believer in Divine Providence -- God always provides!

And so it's with sadness that we bid Sister Marise farewell, knowing there are others who need her tender touch and warm smile. She goes with our blessings, and the knowledge that she has touched our hearts, and we will never be the same again. May God, in His Divine Providence, bless you as you have blessed us. We will miss you more than you can know.

Fr. Joe & the Staff of Good Samaritan.
